Alabama National Fair Youth Sheep Show Rules

*No dogs are allowed on the fairgrounds except guide dogs for the hearing or visually impaired.

*NO open fires, charcoal fires, grills, cooking for food preparation will be allowed in the barns, pens, displays, or slow areas.

GATE PASS: Each livestock exhibitor and family member will be required to purchase a 10 day gate pass to get into the Fair. Passes will be sold at the gate entrances for $7.00 each. (children 6 and under are admitted free).

EXHIBITOR ELIGIBILITY: To be eligible to participate in the Alabama National Fair Youth Sheep event, the exhibitor must be an Alabama resident between the ages four(4) to nineteen(19) the day of the show. Parents of exhibitors under the age of four(4) wishing to participate should contact Andy Tipton, Show Superintendent, for special exemption from the age rule at least ten(10) days before the registration deadline.

SHEEP ELIGIBILITY: The Alabama National Fair Sheep Show will consist of a Market Lamb Show and a Breeding Sheep Show. All breeds and crosses are eligible. Ewe lambs can be shown in the Market Lamb Show OR in the Breeding Sheep Show but the same ewe lamb cannot show in both shows. All animals will be exhibited at the owner's risk. Feed and care is the sole responsibility of the owner and/or exhibitor. Painting is not allowed.

BREEDING SHOW: All breeding ewes, to be eligible to show, must be born between December 1, 2008 to June 1, 2010. Ram lambs born January 1, 2010 to June 1, 2010 are eligible to show. Non-registered rams ARE allowed. Rams are NOT required to be bred and/or born at the exhibitor's farm. All rams will compete in one class, with no competition for rams above class.

MARKET SHOW: Ewe lambs and wethers must possess milk teeth and have suggested minimum weight of 70 pounds to be eligible to show in the market show.

ENTRY FOR SHOW

DEADLINE: All Alabama National Fair Sheep Show entries are to be postmarked or entered online by August 27, 2010 to avoid the late entry fee.

NUMBER OF ENTRIES: Exhibitors can submit 6 entries BETWEEN the Market Lamb and Breeding Sheep Show. Exhibitors may show a maximum of four(4) per show. Examples: 3 Market + 3 Breeding OR 4 Market + 2 Breeding OR 2 Market + 4 Breeding.

County Pens: County Pens will assigned and all sheep will be stalled in the assigned pens and remain overnight in the H.N. Lewis barn. All sheep are required to remain in the immediate vicinity of the Lewis/Teague complex. Exhibitors are not allowed in the horse barns.

TAGS: ALL SHEEP exhibiting in the Alabama National Fair are required to have a SCRAPIE ear tag.

- A. Non-registered breeding sheep and market lamb will be identified with a Scrapie ear tag.
- B. Registered breeding sheep will be identified by a flock ear tag matching the registration papers.

SCRAPIE: All breeding sheeo exhibited should be enrolled in the "Scrapie Flock Certification Program"

Sheep enrolled in the Scrapie certificate Program cannot have intimate contact or be penned with non-enrolled animals or animals of lower status. If you have any question concerning the exhibition of animals in the Scrapie Flock Certificate Program. Please contact Dr. Brasfield at cynthia.m.brasfield@aphis.usda.gov or (334) 657-5549.

INSPECTION: A representative of the State Veterinarian's office will inspect all sheep that come on the grounds of the Alabama National Fair. Sheep showing evidence of intreated lamb fungus will be treated on-site. Sheep with active lesions may be subject to quarantine or returned to farm.

PREMISES ID: List the USDA Premises ID number of the entry form, if available. If needed, a premises ID can be obtained the day of the show. Please see a member of the show management to obtain your premises ID. The use of premises ID's are encouraged.

RING ASSISTANCE: Four(4) to six(6) year olds and documented handicapped exhibitors may receive assistance in the show ring by an age-appropriate volunteer. An age-appropriate volunteer is anyone meeting the age requirements of this event. Exhibitors are required to show their own animals, unless an exhibitor has more than one entry in the same class. In the event, an age-appropriate volunteer may show the other entry.

SHOWMANSHIP: Any properly entered exhibitor is eligible for showmanship, in which the exhibitor will shoe one of their entered sheep. Exhibitor's showmanship class is deteremined by age of the exhibitor on the day of the show. There will be no separate showmanship classes for Breeding Sheep, Market Lambs or the Alabama Bred/Born Show. Showmanship classes will be broken by the committee after entries are received: Based on age as of October 8, 2010.

NEW FOR 2010: A CHAMPION SHOWMAN WILL BE CHOSEN. Each class winner in showmanship will have the oppurtunity to compete for champion showman.

COUNTY GROUPS: County Groups shall consist of five five sheep (any combination of breeding sheep and/or market lambs) owned and exhibited by three or more participants from the same county. County groups awards will be given to the County Group leader/representative.

COMMITTEE: The 2010 Sheep Show Committee members are as follows: Andy Tipton, Donnie Goneke, Randy Shuffield, Becky Cormelius and Phil Slay. Any instances or circumstances not covered in these rules will be at the discretion of this committee.

SHEEP SUPREME COMPETITOR AWARD: Supreme Competitor Awards will be given in EACH showmanship age category. Only those exhibitors that complete the exam are eligible for Supreme Competitor Award.

The following criteria will deterime the awards:

1. 40% of the total score willbe based on the number of correct answers on a general agricultural, specie-based, age-appropriate, multiple-choice exam.
2. 30% of the total score will be based on the placing in showmanship.
3. 15% of the total score will be based on the highest placing of ONE breeding sheep.
4. 15% of the total score will be based on the highest placing of ONE market lamb,

The youth earning the greatest number of points in wach age category will be awarded the Supreme Competitor Award. The youth earning the next greatest number of points in each age category will be awarded the Reserve Supreme Competitor Award. In the event of a tie between exhibitors in the same age group, showmanship class placing will determine the winning exhibitor. All youth earning enough points to place in the top five(5) of each age category will be recognized after the selection of the Grand Champion Market Land. Please remain in attendance to receive awards.

DETERMINING CLASSES: Breeding classes will be broken as evenly as possible by the committee after the entires are received. Registered sheep will be shown by age. Non-registered sheep will be weighed and broken into classes. Market lamb classes will be determined by weight. Showmanship classes will be broken by the committee after entries are received. Based on age as of October 8, 2010.

OWNERSHIP: All sheep exhibited at the Alabama National Fair Youth Sheep show should be the property of and under the direct care of the exhibitor by August 27, 2010. All registered sheep must be the property of and recorded in the same name of the exhibitor or the exhibitor's farm name by August 27, 2010. Original registration papers issued by the breed associations will be checked for verification of ownership. Only sheep properly registered in the appropriate breed association will be allowed to show in the registered breeding sheep classes.
